Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome to Week 4!

We hope you enjoyed the insights and snapshots of our students last week, as we presented Education Week to you all. It has definitely been challenging with restrictions and changes in place, but I couldn't be more proud of our students, staff and community during these times. It was wonderful to still celebrate Education Week with plenty happening last week. Each class created a 'class clip' to share their perspectives and voices about 'learning together', we had our Education Week Awards, the hot dog and ice cream day, public speaking, the Songroom music program and our school's virtual assembly. If you haven't already checked out the videos our classes created, they are on our school's Facebook page and links to view were also sent out via our Skoolbag app.

Once again, I want to acknowledge the following recipients of the 2020 Education Week awards:

For excellence in student achievement: Emily Robinson

For excellence in teaching: Anjella Bunn

Outstanding contribution by a non-teaching staff member: Andrea Lane

Outstanding contribution by a community member: Sam Booth

School achievement award: "Online Learning Program" Glenda Kelson

A big thanks must go to our motivated P&C Team for your efforts in organising the 'hotdog & ice cream' day. It was a huge success and our students were definitely excited with their lunch orders. I want to thank our CTPS school community for such wonderful support of this event, money raised will be put towards school resourcing projects.

Another busy week ahead, with our parent teacher conferences and cross country. Parent teacher interviews are a great opportunity to touch base with your child's teacher to discuss their learning goals and pathway, as well as ways to continue supporting your child's learning. We ask that all visitors who are coming onto school grounds must report to the office to sign in and complete a declaration form. Please continue to practice physical distancing and follow hygiene procedures to ensure the safety of our school community.

Cross Country is scheduled to go ahead on Wednesday (weather pending). We encourage all students to participate in the event to earn points for their house, even if they have to walk some or most of the track. The distances for the age groups are 3000m for 11/12/13 year old students, 8/9/10 will complete 2000m course. There will also be a 'fun run' course for the younger students as well.

Relieving Principal
